

Nels Holmgren President

Nels Holmgren is the Director of the Division of Aging and Adult Services at the State of Utah, which oversees programs mandated by the Older Americans Act to promote healthy and secure lifestyles for Utah's growing senior population. Working with local partners, the Area Agencies on Aging, and other interested parties in the Aging network, the Division provides critical services to empower Utah's seniors to remain independent in their own homes.

Additionally, the Division oversees Utah's Adult Protective Services which investigates cases of abuse neglect and exploitation among Utah's seniors and vulnerable adults, and works to resolve protective needs. Prior to coming to the Division, Nels was a Senior Business Manager in Convergys Corporation's healthcare and Pharmaceutical division.

Nels completed his undergraduate studies in English at Brigham Young University and received his Master's of Business Administration from the Eccles School of Business at the University of Utah. He and his wife Emily are the parents of five children.
